4. EXAMINATION PANEL

Guidelines

- A doctoral dissertation must be examined by three examiners: one internal and two external.
- The independent internal examiner should be appointed at Stellenbosch University. Extraordinary lecturers/professors and research fellows at SU are considered internal examiners.
- One independent external examiner should be appointed at any other university or research institution in South Africa.
- One independent external examiner should be appointed at any other university or research institution outside South Africa.
- A person who was previously associated with or appointed at SU must not have been in service of this university for a period of at least three years before that person can be appointed as an external examiner.
- IMPORTANT: Only electronic versions of the dissertation will be sent to examiners, who are welcome to print their own hard copies.
