

Stellenbosch

UNIVERSITY
IYUNIVESITHI
UNIVERSITEIT

Chair in Plant Health

Financial Management and Cost Management

The Basics of Agricultural Financial Statements

The Course Presenter: Pieter Strauss CA (SA)

Background

The course has been designed to target non-financial managers/supervisors and staff to teach them the following financial principles:

- Understanding of Agricultural focused financial principles and concepts
- Basic understanding and analysing of Agricultural focused financial statements
- Practical and theoretical understanding of cost management principles
- Analysing and understanding risk management and control measures in a business and financial context
- Basic analyses of financial ratios
- Basic understanding of cash flows

The Presenter

Pieter is a Chartered Accountant (CA) with more than 30 years' experience in corporate finance, risk management and project finance. He was a partner and director at PwC and is currently chairperson of various audit committees, lectures in finance and is a trustee of various large agricultural businesses. Currently Pieter is involved in the following:

- Lecturer and programme director for the Agrileadership Course on behalf of the Faculty of AgriSciences at the Stellenbosch University
- Lecturer in project finance and project selection at the Stellenbosch University Business School
- External Moderator on the MBA programme of the Stellenbosch University Business School
- Independent trustee on a large farming Trust that farms with olives, table grapes, passion fruit, watermelons, onion seedlings, citrus etc
- Chairperson and member of various audit committees

The Course

The course is registered as a short course through the Stellenbosch University Short Course Programme

Method of Training: Online

Date: 15-18 September 2026

Time: 08:00 – 10:00

Costs: R3000

Click here to register for the course

agritraining.co.za

For more information and registration:
Lorette de Villiers - agrishortcourses@sun.ac.za 0829211945