English for Academic Purposes (EAP)

Credit-bearing Programme

Want to improve your academic essay and assignment writing skills, or your English vocabulary and reading comprehension? Hone your academic English skills with us! Join the EAP credit-bearing programme, open to international students.

What will we focus on?

Attend one or both EAP Reading and Writing and Speaking and Language modules.

Reading & Writing:

By the end of the programme, you will be able to –

To provide you with the necessary transfer skills such as writing skills, critical thinking skills, research skills and problem-solving.

- use English in an academic context;
- read and summarise a variety of academic texts;
- identify five different essay types;
- build arguments and structure academic writing; and
- write, revise and edit a variety of academic texts.

Speaking & Language:

By the end of the programme, you will be able to –

To provide you with the necessary public speaking and presentation skills to enable you to participate confidently in peer and group activities, lectures, and academic tasks where presenting is involved

- use spoken English in an academic context;
- plan, organise and write a speech for a presentation;
- create visual presentations to enhance your speech;
- use effective and appropriate speaking and presentation techniques;
- evaluate speeches, and develop your own presentation skills;
- listen to a presentation for understanding and ask contextualised questions; and
- expand your vocabulary and grammar to use language appropriately in context.
